SBS Undergraduate Student Engagement Fair!

Wednesday, Nov. 15th | 2017 | 12:00-2:00pm
ENR2 Building Courtyard

The College of Social and Behavioral Sciences (SBS) invites you to learn more about applied learning experiences like internships, research, service learning, study abroad, and courses with community involvement. Come connect with professors from across our college and learn what experiential learning means in the social sciences. Also joining us will be a variety of campus organizations including the Office of Student Engagement and Career Development, Leadership Programs, Study Abroad, the Office of Undergraduate Research, and the SBS Ambassadors! The fair runs from 12-2pm and feel free to stop by anytime during this window.

No RSVP is required for this event.

If you have any questions about this event, please email Jesse McCain (jmccain@email.arizona.edu)