iSchools

MINOR CHECKLIST: LIBRARY & INFORMATION SCIENCE

This minor is a great introduction for work in any information context engaging in work related to libraries, archives, special collections, material preservation, heath information management, and more! ...this minor will pique your interest in UA's MA degree in Library and Information Science!

NOTE: Unless they are part of an Accelerated Masters Program in Library and Information Sciences, students may not double-use graduate-level credit towards undergraduate requirements. Learn more about undergraduate enrollment in graduate level classes.

Coursework for the LIS minor may be taken in any order; students do not have to follow any particular order of classes.

Required Minor Core:

ESOC 210: Hacking and Open-Source Culture*   __

ESOC 213: The Past and New Media   __

ESOC 315: Publishing: From Papyrus to eBook Readers   __

LIS 432: Online Searching

*ESOC 210 can double-dip as a Tier II Individuals and Society (prior to Spring 2022 admission) or a Natural Scientist (Spring 2022 and onwards) general education requirement!

Required Electives (Choose Two):

ANTH 372: Critical Issues for Museums in the 21st Century

ESOC 319: Instructional Technologies

INFO 420: Ethical Issues in Information

LIS 4XX (see second page)

LIS 4XX (see second page)

Total Units   /18

A minimum GPA of 2.0 required for this minor.

LIS minor Advisor Information, Main Campus:

Audrey de la Rosa

adlr@arizona.edu

Declaring the Library and Information Science minor

Any advisor can declare the minor (LISMINU) and students may also sign up on the iSchool website: https://ischool.arizona.edu/declare A meeting with the minor advisor is not required to declare.

Students may use the Trellis advising system to meet with the minor advisor but is it NOT required. A meeting with the minor advisor is always welcomed, but never required: http://student.trellis.arizona.edu/

LIS COURSEWORK

LIS 417: Introduction to Digital Cultures

LIS 418: Information Quality

LIS 435: Business Information

LIS 470: Database Management and Development

LIS 471: Introduction to Information Technology

LIS 472: Government Information

LIS 475: User Interface and Website Design

LIS 484: Introduction to Copyright

LIS 487: Information-Seeking Behaviors