

MINOR CHECKLIST: LIBRARY & INFORMATION SCIENCE

This minor is a great introduction for work in any information context engaging in work related to libraries, archives, special collections, material preservation, health information management, and more!
...this minor will pique your interest in UA's MA degree in Library and Information Science!

NOTE: While students cannot use graduate credit towards the LIS minor, Seniors with a GPA of 3.0 can request to receive graduate credit for LIS courses

Required Minor Core:

- ESOC 210: Hacking and Open-Source Culture* —
- ESOC 213: The Past and New Media —
- ESOC 315: Publishing: From Papyrus to eBook Readers —
- LIS 432: Online Searching —

*ESOC 210 can double-dip as a Tier II Individuals and Society General Education requirement!

Required Electives (Choose Two):

- ANTH 372 - Critical Issues for Museums in the 21st Century
- ESOC 319 - Instructional Technologies
- ESOC 418 - Information Trust, Manipulation, and Deception
- INFO 420 - Ethical Issues in Information
- LIS 4XX (can take up to two 400 level LIS classes)

Total Units __/18

A minimum GPA of 2.0 required for this minor.

LIS minor Advisor Information:

Laura Owen
 Undergraduate Academic Advisor School of Information
lauraowen@email.arizona.edu

LIS COURSEWORK

LIS 417: Introduction to Digital Cultures

LIS 470: Database Management and Development

LIS 471: Introduction to Information Technology

LIS 472: Government Information

LIS 475: User Interface and Website Design

LIS 484: Introduction to Copyright

LIS 487: Information-Seeking Behaviors